

Kimberly Paternoster <kim@sextantpublishing.com>
To: DJ Doran
RE: Apology

January 10, 2012 9:09 AM

---

Oh, and one more thing I forgot to add:

I am your biggest fan. I KNOW you are going to succeed with L&A, and I really do trust in you (see that's a big word). I know closing this deal is causing you a lot of stress and frustration, but you are KICKING ASS, and I know you will continue to.

So thank you, for everything. J

kim

---

From: Kimberly Paternoster [mailto:kim@sextantpublishing.com]
Sent: Tuesday, January 10, 2012 9:01 AM
To: dj@sextantpublishing.com
Subject: Apology

Hi DJ,

All this thinking is wearing me out. J

I realized last night that I owe you a big apology. I damaged the trust you had in me because of my actions in my personal life. I can imagine you must feel somewhat sideswiped by my actions. I am very sorry that I put you in this situation, and I feel very sad that I have lost your trust.

I am moving forward and learning to work with what I have in a positive way. I think of myself as a very trustworthy person with a lot of integrity, though I haven't shown you that with recent events. I am going to work very hard to restore that trust in me.

Sincerely,

kim